

Wood Speedwell - Veronica montana

Description

Wood speedwell is a small plant, similar in appearance to germander speedwell. The main differences are a stem that is hairy all over, opposed to hairs in two lines in germander, and leaves, brighter green in colour.

The species is found in neutral to slightly basic, rich and moist soils in W7-10 communities.

Soil regimes

Soil reaction (R)	6
---------------------------------	---

Nitrogen availability (N)	6
---	---

Acknowledgements: